Masons Sponsor Pre-Christmas Banquet

The Long Mt. Lodge No. 204, F and A masons sponsored its annual pre-Christmas dinner Sunday at 3 p.m. in its hall at Concord, Virginia. The following program was presented with P. M. Edwin Elliott serving as master of ceremony: Opening Song, Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow; Invocation, Rev. H. O. Flood; Dinner; Introduction of Speaker, W. M. Edward James; Speaker, D.D.G.M. Corbette Scott; Recognition of Special Guest by Master of Ceremony; Remarks by the W. M. and Past Masters. The dinner was served by Maude's Catering Service. The dinner was enjoyed by all present. The benediction was given by P. M. R. Q. Lawing.

Impressive service was held at the Galilee Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered an inspiring sermon on the theme: "The Innkeeper's Dilemma." Several visitors attended the service. The church choirs rendered special Christmas music. During the offering a special love offering was lifted for the pastor's Christmas gift. The presentation to the pastor was made by brother George A. Martin on behalf on the members and friends of the church.

All officers, members and friends are cordially invited to worship at the Promise Land Baptist Church this Sunday morning, which is Christmas day.

The Appomattox Assembly held a very effective and interesting meeting last Wednesday. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, January 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the fellowship hall of the Galilee Baptist Church. Several committee were appointed to bring in goals for the new year. Mr. Anderson of the Petersburg office will be the guest speaker. Members are asked to bring refreshments.

The officers, members and friends all invited to attend the Christmas program of the Galilee Church Sunday School this Friday at 7 p.m.

Regular evening service at 7 p.m., Special music will be rendered by the junior choir.

Recent visitors to Historic Appomattox and with Mrs. Lillie C. Stevens were: Mrs. Thelma C. Williams of Roanoke, Virginia and Mr. Broden Clayton of William and Mary's College of Lexington, Virginia.

PAMPLIN 4-H CLUB

Mrs. Dickerson's 4-H Club met December 9th at Pamplin Elementary School. Miss Smith and Mrs. Walton was the leaders. They showed us some slides of the last years share-the-fun. Then the meeting was adjourned.

Remember . . . It's the Thought Behind the Gift That Counts!

Though it has been many a year since Gordon Staples of Evergreen, Virginia has been a student, he will readily agree that you're never too old to learn.

Leon Lawing, Instructor of night class in Bricklaying at the Appomattox County High School gives Gordon a few pointers before he takes over the work on a photo type marker for the Evergreen Community Cemetery. Far left is another "never-to-old-to-learn" member of the class, Joseph Stahling and next to him is Leon Lawing Jr. who proudly watches as his father works.

Gifts for the Young at Heart

Quite often it is the "senior citizen" who is most difficult to buy for — but it needn't be so. Gifts that "look ahead" are always appreciated . . . gifts such as a subscription to a magazine or book club, or a roll of postage stamps in a pretty container.

Place lamb in oven. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and cook without cover 2-3 hours. Serve warm, garnished with vegetables.

Eating Well

Here are a few recipes that you might like to try during the holidays. We hope that each of you will have a joyous Christmas.

Christmas Jewels

½ cup peanut butter.
½ cup honey
1 cup nonfat dry milk granules
½ cup chopped dates
1 teaspoon vanilla
One 3½ ounce can of angel flake coconut
Red food coloring
Green food coloring

Combine peanut butter, honey, dry milk, dates, and vanilla. Shape into 36 small balls. Tint ½ coconut with red coloring and ½ coconut with green coloring. Roll peanut butter balls in coconut. Chill. Yield 36 small candies.

Olive Cheese Puffs

¼ lb. sharp Cheddar cheese, grated
⅛ cup soft butter
¾ cup sifted all-purpose flour
1/8 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon paprika
48 small stuffed olives or canned button mushrooms

Cream cheese and butter. Add dry ingredients. Mix to form a ball. Shape on teaspoon dough around each olive or mushroom. Place on cookie sheet. Bake in preheated 400 degree oven for 12 to 15 minutes.

Roast Lamb

¼ cup lemon juice
1 tsp. tarragon
½ cup oil
black pepper
½ tsp. crushed oregano
large onion, sliced
½ cup sherry

Above ingredients are to be combined to make a marinate sauce for Leg of lamb or shoulder roast.

One day or more before serving lamb, place meat in a pan and pour marinate over it. Cover and store in refrigerator (turn occasionally). Three hours before serving, preheat oven to 450 degrees. Remove meat from marinade. Save marinade (used to make gravy later).
